A Maidenhead Civic Society event to mark Civic Day on June 17, 2017

Maidenhead and Me 2017

MAIDENHEAD Civic Society first devised Maidenhead and Me in 2014 to stimulate public interest in the place we call home.

Four years on, with the same aim, our challenge this time is for artists and photographers to use their imagination to depict "Maidenhead As I See It".

This year there's an even greater chance of scooping a prize. There will be an Art section and a Photography section with three age categories in each.

The competition launches on Civic Day (Saturday, June 17) and the winners will be announced at the opening of an exhibition of all entries on Saturday, September 16, in the Nicholsons Centre.

How To Enter:

■ Maidenhead and Me is open to Art and Photographic entries in three categories: Adult, Senior (11 years to 18 years) and Junior (10 years and under).

■ Entrants will portray 'Maidenhead as I See it' in the medium of their choice.

■ Finished artwork should be no smaller than 30cm x 30cm (12in x 12in) and no larger than 76cm x 76cm (30in x 30in), excluding any mount or frame. Photographs should be a minimum of 210mm x 297mm (A4). Entries must be ready to hang with picture wire/cord and eyelets.

■ No limit on number of entries. However, Seniors and Juniors may not enter other categories (proof of age may be required).

■ An entry form must be completed and attached to each submitted entry, with the appropriate fee per entry – Adult £2.50, Senior £1.00, Junior 50p.

■ Completed work should be delivered to the Maidenhead and Me unit in the Nicholsons Centre between Friday, September 8 and Sunday, September 10. Work can be submitted at other times by arrangement.

■ Entries will be judged by representatives of the sponsors. Their decision is final.

The Prizes:

Art and Photography sections both have three categories, with three prizes to be won in each:
